Hello! I'm Owen and I like to think of myself as the official Barn Greeter. I'm the first horse you see when you come in the barn and I'll usually reach out to nudge you just to make sure you stop to say hello. I like it when people say how big and tall I am and tell me I'm handsome! I'm super nice and I get along with everyone. Lots of riders really like me which makes me SO happy!

Boy, am I handsome or what?

Carter has long legs
just like me!
